Entry Level Food Import, Relocatable, Great Bolt-On

Price	SOLD
Ref	BBS2306

A fantastic little opportunity awaits an enthusiastic new owner - someone's who's excited about working from home and building on this easy to run import / distribution business.

What we are selling are the exclusive rights to import into New Zealand popular healthy snack products from South America. Launched in to the New Zealand market in April 2016, the products are exported internationally from the manufacturer who is enjoying exponential international growth.

The owner has worked hard to establish the brand here and get this amazing range stocked in over 60 retail outlets throughout New Zealand including selected higher end supermarkets nationwide and is Foodstuffs certified.

The products are healthy, delicious and on trend, furthermore, the pricing allows for good margins for both the wholesaler and retailer. Other key highlights include very low overheads as there is no staff, no assets other than stock and a reliable logistics company that is used for storage and distribution services.

BUSINESS SALES WITH INTEGRITY

The Vendor moved overseas following a new career a few months ago and is currently running the business remotely; that's how simple it is! This would be an ideal bolt on to an existing complementary business or excellent opportunity to develop and grow as everything required is in place including stock in Auckland plus the strong foundations which have been built with the supplier, retailers and New Zealand consumers. You also have the opportunity to start importing additional lines of product from the supplier.

Asking Price: $70,000 including stock of $25,000.

If you are interested and would like more information about this business, visit www.barkerbusiness.co.nz/BBS2306, register your details and submit the online Confidentiality Agreement. Once Paolo receives your expression of interest he will be in touch.
