

Get Sucked In Profitable Central Vacuum Business

Trading since 1998, this well established, easily run and wonderfully profitable enterprise is a great opportunity for someone to make the leap into their own installation business for a very reasonable entry price.

Predominantly focused on the installation of Central Vacuum Systems, with some additional income from installation of Ventilation Systems, this business;

Operates in the growth Healthy Home market segment.

Enjoys exclusive, nationwide product distribution agreements

Has a small and experienced team installation team, and Provides superior products.

The business had a FY19 cash surplus of $233,370 and we think it could easily be run by a husband and wife team working together on their business to capture:

An excellent base income

Control over your destiny

Control over your time

Substantial upside (expand nationwide, develop Auckland market, develop marketing)

No specific technical experience or qualifications are required
