$250K Cash Surplus, Panel & Paint, Great Location

Price	SOLD
Ref	BBS2551

Located in a busy city fringe location this long-established panel and paint shop is a highly recognised and trusted performer in the motor vehicle repair industry.

As an approved recommended repairer for many insurance companies, this business has consistent workflow streams and great internal systems which insure a smooth business operation for the owners. Due to the success of this repair shop, there is always a generous amount of forward incoming work booked in advance allowing a new owner the comfort of instant revenue.

Complete with a fully well-equipped workshop with experienced well-trained staff, this business would suit a smart business minded person, industry experienced person(s) or an existing industry identity looking to expand their business portfolio.

With an average cash surplus of over $300,000 for the last 2 years, this impressive business with high standards set in place and a quality working environment is not one to be missed at an affordable asking price.
