You're all familiar with this popular pizza chain who have captured the nation's attention. The brand has attitude, powerful marketing campaigns, offers expert training and support and above all else... a loyal customer following! An opportunity exists now for you to become your own boss and join this successful, profitable franchise who offers sophisticated resources and systems, full training and ongoing support and clever, calculated marketing strategies.

Located in a fast growing area in the Bay of Plenty, the store on offer is situated right on a main highway, making it a perfect place for travellers and locals alike to stop for a bite. It's nestled amongst complementary shops with great road visibility and plenty of parking and the interior has been professionally set up to reflect the company's image and branding. The owner has spent time away from the business so it is currently run under management.

He tells us that the store could return to a working owner an income of around $80K however this could be increased to around $100 - $110K so long as the new owner brings passion to the role, energy, enthusiasm and a tenacity to succeed! This is a well-established operation averages weekly sales of around $12,500 however the vendor tells us that sale for this
