Blenheim's Bounty - Lovely ECE for Sale

We are proud to present a modern leasehold Early Childcare Centre located in a quiet neighbourhood in Sunny Blenheim for sale.

The current owner is a passionate experienced teacher with her own children so the centre's layout, design and equipment has been well thought out by someone who understands what is needed for great centre.

The centre is focused on educating their children in a caring and big family environment with some children traveling up to 40 minutes to attend when they have closer options.

The opening hours are lifestyle friendly with great staff and a mix of qualifications.
There are plenty of options for the new owner to consider, either a teaching role or take an overview and look after administration and general business.

Business is growing with this current year's income expected to exceed 2020 by at least 15%. There are opportunities to grow this business both in income and surplus from plans already in place.
