Great Opportunities Do Exist, Take a Look...

This Luxury motorhome rental business is the lifestyle business operation to make many envious.

Operating from the vendors home in Auckland with a base also in Christchurch, this boutique business is so well set up the current owner estimates he would spend on average 1.5 days a week in his role. The internal systems for booking and payment are a dream to operate, and many hours of work has been put into google optimisation to be assured they are at the front or are on the front page of the potential client searching the web.

There are $166,000 in forward bookings and over $50,000 in deposits paid and this is in Covid effected travel times. Many New Zealanders are presently taking the opportunity to explore the own back yard and this business is well placed to capture the top end of this market.

With 3 high value luxurious motorhomes and accessories available to hire, its clients are those wanting a high-end experience with all the comforts of home. For the current owners it's time to put their feet up and retire. This unique opportunity presents itself at a prime time as it is expected the borders will be fully open soon and an influx of tourists are
