PTE Offering Industry Health & Safety Training

This Category 2 NZQA accredited private training establishment has developed and delivered a range of comprehensive industry training solutions tailor-made to meet the industry specific needs.

The PTE was first registered with NZQA in 2019, specifically to deliver quality training to improve health and safety for employees of a selected group of companies and for the industry in general.

The first External Evaluation and Review Report (EERR) has been released in September 2022.

The delivery of the courses began in 2020 and they had 169 learners in 2020, 252 learners in 2021 and in March 2022 the trainings have been suspended as the business was no longer a priority for the owner, so the time has come to sell.

Most courses are unit standards-based and are delivered over one or two days and they are also offering a Level 3 National Certificate qualification.

The two main sites for delivery the courses were in Auckland and Christchurch and with a minimum number of attendances, they could perform the courses in any location nationwide.

The business was run by one full-time training manager and few part-time trainers, that will likely still be available on a subcontractor arrangement.

It has been an interesting and challenging journey for the owner to start the PTE and he is now ready to move on from and be more focused on his other trade companies.

This business is suitable for some other education/training businesses wishing to add this PTE to their portfolio and/or for someone who wants to enter the PTE industry (that has many barriers to entry) with an already approved entity.
