Water Transport Business Priced to Sell

Backed by a trusted brand, forged over decades, and exceptional water quality, this well-managed water transport business can't be overlooked - it delivers a solid income for the working owners and offers plenty of scope for growth.

The business services Warkworth, Matakana, Omaha and surrounds, (north of Auckland) and caters to both commercial and residential customers and given the steady increase in population in the area, this presents an exciting opportunity to capitalise on the steadily increasing need for water.

Exclusive supplier contracts, with well situated bores, enable the business to lead the market locally with a premium untreated water that is in high demand, and the business has earned an excellent reputation for the purity of its water and the speed and efficiency of its customer service. The business has strong seasonal demand, with the opportunity for owners to have downtime in the wetter months or work to expand the operation.

With $250,000 in assets, it includes two trucks and well maintained equipment. The transport business would suit someone local or a couple wanting to work in the business, or
