Discover this standout B2B business in Auckland's commercial sector, a leading name in entertainment lighting with substantial profitability and growth opportunities. Boasting a cash surplus of $803k for 2023 and semi-autonomous operation, this business is primed for continued success.

Supported by a skilled team and a solid base of esteemed clients, it offers a secure investment with promising expansion prospects. The sale includes all depreciated assets and stock valued at over $1.17 million, with a total asking price of $2.495 million.

As the premier provider in New Zealand's entertainment lighting sector, it guarantees a steady demand for its services and a secure path to long-term success. The owners are committed to ensuring a seamless transition, and ready to provide support to the new management.

Ideal for forward-thinking entrepreneurs, who will not need specific industry knowledge, this business merges a robust operational base with attractive financial returns and a strong brand presence.
