Smart Investment Opportunity - Deadline Date!!

Barker Business Brokerage have been asked to facilitate the sale of a 17% stake in an internationally respected, privately held boutique management consultancy, which has built the World's largest advisory and corporate finance team in a key emerging services sector. The company, headquartered in New Zealand has established offices in Australia, the USA and South East Asia.

The business has been ranked among the top 500 fastest growing companies in Asia for the last two years respectively. It has completed over 2,500 client engagements, including for marque international brands such as Coca Cola, Comcast, Danone, Hitachi and Singtel. These engagements have built a deep, established track record and extensive, searchable dataset.

This company has built an experienced team of specialists globally, combining multiple disciplines under one roof to provide full end-to-end solutions for its clients.

As it has grown, the company has expanded its revenue streams across multiple service lines and geographies, with the majority of its revenue now coming from offshore. The company has a highly diverse client base - no single client
