Sustainable $1.4m Profit - $3.290m Purchase Price

Interest in this niche service business has been high, ticking both boxes of sustainable profitability and excellent growth potential. Demand for the services provided by the business continues to outstrip capacity, with the owner having to turn down further work.

This successful business is a tribute to the initiative and hard work of the owner and his wife, from a standing start 25 years ago to a highly successful sustainable business employing over 25 people today. With a strong family culture based on fair and considerate treatment of all staff, the business has prospered and grown to a point of unique strength in its sector.

In preparation for their retirement from the business, the owners have developed a strong leadership support team to assist with the transition to a new owner. Well tested systems underpin the efficiency and quality control which make this service business such a hit with its loyal customer base.

Based in the midst of a strong catchment zone in South Auckland, the business has multiple growth options including both functional and geographic expansion. It's unique
