Business Growth Potential AND Income / Lifestyle

This high profile, top of mind, popular North Shore licensed business is associated with the leisure industry and is strongly supported by leading premium products. The business itself is a very smooth operation and is easily run, with Departmental Managers taking responsibility for at least 60% of the daily running of the business. The remaining percentage could easily be run by another Manager, but the Vendors currently choose to look after this area themselves. Due to the success of the business, the International Licensor has indicated very strongly that they would assist a new purchaser in every way possible to maximise the continuing year on year growth this business enjoys; and they have also indicated they would work closely with a new owner to examine further opportunities to duplicate this operation in other sites to take advantage of the significant opportunities within the greater Auckland City region. For an astute business-savvy owner there may be the opportunity to duplicate this business possibly 2 or 3 times throughout Auckland - maybe more! You are not buying a job with this business - you are buying a serious opportunity to fulfill this business to the maximum with a more than significant income and lifestyle. Asking Price: $897,000. If you have a strong desire to grow an already successful business and
