3, 2, 1... Shuttle Company - Taking off!

Sales and profitability in this North Shore based shuttle company are stratospheric with a *$30,000 increase in December sales on the preceding year alone! This year's earnings are over *$200,000 which has already surpassed last years and there is still two months remaining in the financial year.

This shuttle company has built up a solid name and reputation on the North Shore providing a personal, dependable and professional shuttle service. The business and profits have grown considerably year on year and with the expansion in the area, there is a massive opportunity to build an empire. This is a phenomenal opportunity to take over an already established, trust worthy service which has been growing organically without marketing. The way the business is growing the next step would be to put in a Manager after running the operation for a while and understanding it.

With a huge database and regular customers there is a *massive amount of repeat business and with a fleet of good vehicles and a pool of reliable drivers, this is a serious business with huge growth potential.

Asking Price: $650,000 Including Assets.
